

ALLIED COUNCIL SPEEDS PLAN TO DISARM GERMANY

Question of Reparations Is Pushed Aside at First Day's Session.

PARIS, Jan. 24.—Representatives of Great Britain, France, Italy, Belgium and Japan assembled here to-day for a conference which seemed second in importance only to that preceding the signing of the Treaty of Versailles. The principal figures of the meeting were David Lloyd George and Aristide Briand, who last week assumed the post of President of the Council of the French Republic.

British, French, Italian and other representatives drove to the Quai d'Orsay, Premier Lloyd George alone having a bodyguard.

Military and naval experts were called in to make brief reports, occupying about two hours. At the end of that time the following communiqué was issued:

"After a welcoming speech by Premier Briand of France, the first question on the programme of the conference, disarmament, was discussed by experts comprising: France—Marshal Foch, Gen. Weygand, Nollet and Barthou; England—Gen. Wilson and Bingham; Belgium—Gen. Maréchal; Italy—Gen. Mariette.

"Marshal Foch presented a resume of the statements and a report of the Versailles Commission on disarmament, and described the present situation in Germany in regard to troops and armament. Gen. Bingham, Nollet and Mariette furnished details.

"The discussion of disarmament will be continued this afternoon. After reports of Allied experts have been presented, Government heads will deliberate over the question."

President Wilson's note requesting the Allies to give guarantees that Russia will not be attacked put that situation in the forefront. The Allies must decide whether they will follow Wilson's wishes. Other big questions confronting Premiers were:

1. German reparations. Economists hold that the fixing of a definite German indemnity is essential to stabilization of world trade and industrial conditions, and that when such an indemnity is definitely fixed, an industrial boom will result.
2. Bolshevism in the Near East. The Allies were confronted with the problem of deciding how to stop the threatened advance of the Bolsheviks into Turkey and the Near East with-out actual warfare with Russia.
3. The Austrian situation. Austria

SAY CARSON IS TO QUIT LEADERSHIP

Expected to Decline Premiership of Ulster and Withdraw From Irish Affairs

LONDON, Jan. 24.—Sir Edward Carson is expected to refuse the Premiership of the Province of Ulster and also intimate his withdrawal from Irish affairs when he receives an Ulster delegation to-morrow, says the Daily Mail. He will continue his interest in Ireland, the newspaper declares, "simply as a well wisher from England."

Sir Edward will go to Ulster next month to publicly announce his withdrawal and attend the opening of the Ulster Parliament, which ceremony, the Daily Mail declares, may be performed by King George.

Buildings Facing Dublin Castle Are Commandeered.

DUBLIN, Jan. 24.—All the buildings in Palace street, which overlook the main entrance to Dublin Castle, have been commandeered by the military. The residents have been ordered to quit their premises before next Thursday.

O'CALLAGHAN WILL NOT GO AT ONCE

To Receive a Seaman's Certificate and Leave When He Gets Ready.

NORFOLK, Va., Jan. 24.—Donald J. O'Callaghan, Lord Mayor of Cork, who came here as a stowaway without a passport, returned here to-day. Judge Joseph H. Lawless, his counsel, announced that he would be surrendered late to-day to the immigration inspector as ordered by Secretary Wilson of the Labor Department.

Judge Lawless said O'Callaghan would not be immediately deported, but would be granted a "seaman's certificate" which would give him the right to ship aboard an outbound vessel at his convenience.

CLUE ON DEATH LETTER.

Fingerprints May Be Means of Discovering the Author.

Fingerprints on a letter signed "Sure Death," received by former Supervisor Philip W. Christ of New Hyde Park, L. I., demanding that $5,000 be left in the railway station at New Hyde Park may be the means of discovering the author not only of this communication, but of the threatening letters written to Mrs. A. Butler Duncan of Hempstead. The handwriting is the same. Mr. Christ with Sheriff Charles W. Smith and several deputies and detectives placed a log in the designated place last night and watched it for more than two hours, but the letter writer did not appear.

has announced that she is bankrupt and wants to go into the hands of a receiver; that if the Allies let her collapse, a wave of Bolshevism will sweep over her, and on over Europe. Aid for Austria was scheduled to come up early in the discussions.

4. Greece. King Constantine, frowned on by the Allies, has resumed the Greek throne. There have been rumors that the Allies would take steps to oust him. This question will also be settled at the Paris meeting.

ACROBAT IS SHOT; DIES IN DANCE HALL

Philip Herman, Known as One of the O'Brien's, Killed in Buffalo Resort.

Special to The Evening World. BUFFALO, Jan. 24.—Philip Herman was shot dead during a brawl in Pine Hill Inn, just over the city line, yesterday morning. Clarence Burton, of Tonawanda, is being sought by the police for the killing. Herman and Thomas Brennan, known as the O'Brien Acrobats, played the Gayety Theatre last week. After the performance Brennan, with his wife, Herman, Hazel Miller and Clarence and Margaret Franklin, actresses, were at the table at the entrance to the dance hall.

There was a general fight about the women. Burton drew a revolver and fired one shot. The bullet entered the abdomen and severed an artery. Herman died to death before an ambulance arrived.

In the panic following the shot in the dance hall, where there were about 150 men and women, Burton escaped. Authorities are holding Brennan and the girl as witnesses.

Wife of Broker Plunges to Death. Mrs. Beatrice E. Adams, forty-four years old, wife of Edward E. Adams, a broker of No. 61 Broadway, either fell or jumped from the eleventh floor of the apartment house at No. 480 West End Avenue last night. Mrs. Adams, who was suffering from nervous trouble, often sat at the bath of the apartment house on the 53d street side.
